You Already Know the Bourbon, Horses & History Region of Kentucky!

Kentucky Derby

The most legendary thoroughbred horserace in the world, the fastest two minutes in sports, and the longest running continuously held sporting event in the U.S. The Kentucky Derby is held annually on the first Saturday in May.

Abraham Lincoln

"Where the Lincoln Legacy Began" Abraham Lincoln was the 16th President of the United States of America. Kentucky is home to his birthplace, boyhood home, and the famed Lincoln Museum.

Kentucky Bourbon

Welcome to Bourbon Country! Bourbon is America's only native spirit. 95% of the world's Bourbon is made in Kentucky. Our region is home to the official Bourbon Capital of the World.

Muhammad Ali

Muhammad Ali is a global icon, humanitarian, heavyweight champion of the world, and Louisville, Kentucky native son. Visit the Muhammad Ali Center to learn more about his life and history.

Fort Knox

General George Patton Museum located in Fort Knox, Kentucky features personal and military artifacts from the legendary life of General George S. Patton, Jr.

Claudia Sanders Dinner House

Former home of Colonel & Claudia Sanders, where an air of Southern Hospitality and cooking combined with old fashioned, family style service still remain.
